State Board of Education elects new officers

Cheyenne – The Wyoming State Board of Education elected new officers at its most recent meeting in Cheyenne. Gerald “Joe” Reichardt of Wheatland was elected Chairman and Dr. Larry McGarvin of Ten Sleep was elected Treasurer.

Reichardt’s current term is through 2015. He worked at Coors Ceramic and A. Coors Brewing Company in Golden, Colorado for 23 years as a Research Technician, Supervisor, Production Superintendent and Manager before coming to Wyoming and partnering with his wife, Stacey, in several successful small businesses.

Over the last 21 years, he has served on the Platte County Library Board of Directors, been elected Platte County Commissioner for two four-year terms, and served on the Wyoming D.E.Q. Air Quality Advisory Board for six years.

McGarvin’s current term is through 2012. He is a General Dentist with practices in Ten Sleep and Gillette. He was born and raised in Worland, Wyoming. He and his wife, Sue, live near Ten Sleep canyon. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Colorado State University and a Doctor of Dental Surgery degree from the University of Nebraska Medical Center.
