CHILD AND ADULT CARE FOOD PROGRAM SITES IN WYOMING ARE ANNOUNCED

Income guidelines offered for the program

CHEYENNE - This is the Wyoming Department of Education's announcement of all the participating Child and Adult Care Food Program organizations in the state of Wyoming. The Child and Adult Care Food Program reimburses these organizations for meals they serve according to guidelines they have to follow as a requirement to participate.

These organizations are reimbursed for children ages birth to 12 years of age. The goals of the CACFP are to teach good eating habits and assure that well-balanced, nourishing meals are served to children in these participating centers. The same meals will be made available to all enrolled children at no separate charge regardless of race, color, national origin, gender, age, or disability, and there is no discrimination in the course of the meal service.

All children who are part of a SNAP or FDPIR household are eligible to receive free meal benefits for the participating center. A foster child and a head start child are eligible to receive free meal benefits for the participating center. TANF participants will be eligible to receive free or reduced meal benefits for the participating center depending on income.

The chart below is the Income Eligibility Guidelines that determine what the reimbursement will be for each participating center. These guidelines are in effect from July 1, 2013, through June 30, 2014.
