The public website for the State of Wyoming's Video Task Force is located at: <http://sites.google.com/site/wyovideo> . "The Governor of the State of Wyoming <http://governor.wy.gov/>, has appointed a Task Force to examine and make recommendations on Distance Education, Video Conferencing, and IP-based Communications. A Request for Proposal was released January 22, 2009 in search of a vendor to perform a needs analysis which would evaluate and examine the State of Wyoming's video teleconferencing and IP communications needs and make recommendations regarding network architecture, costs, video teleconferencing governance and funding. This site contains information about this initiative." The site also contains links to both consultant groups, PlanNet and Wainhouse.
