To Whom It May Concern:

For the school year 2011-2012, I am fortunate to have the opportunity to sponsor young adults to serve in the United States Senate as official Senate Pages. This is an excellent opportunity for a few civic-minded young men or women to learn about the legislative process and assist US Senators and their staffs.

Students who participate in this program will live in Washington, D.C. and attend school with other pages from across the country. It is the aim of the program for them to experience new ideas, perspectives and issues as they interact with and participate in government on a daily basis.

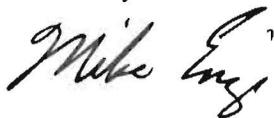

Page duties consist primarily of delivering correspondence and legislative materials within the congressional complex. Other duties include taking messages for Senators, calling them to the phone, preparing the Senate Chamber for sessions, and carrying bills and amendments to the desk. Through a rotation system, every Page has an opportunity to experience all areas of service.

Eligibility is limited to students who will be incoming juniors in high school and who will be 16 or 17 years old on or before the date of appointment. A certificate of immunization and general health assessment, completed by a licensed physician, are required. Applicants must have a minimum grade-point average of 3.0.

The Senate Page School seeks to provide as smooth a transition as possible between Washington and the student's home school. The School provides the necessary requisites for a junior year course of study plus offering a Field Studies Program which provides unique educational and cultural opportunities. Webster Hall, located near the Capitol, is the Page residence during the school year. Pages receive a stipend that can be used to defray the cost of the residence hall and cover the cost of the provided breakfast and dinner each day.

The fall session runs from September 5, 2011 until January 27, 2012. Applications and additional information can be found on www.enzi.senate.gov. If you have any questions, please contact Dianne Kirkbride in Cheyenne office at 307-772-2477 or by email at Dianne\_Kirkbride@enzi.senate.gov

Sincerely,

Michael B. Enzi
United States Senator
