Doodle 4 Google

Google is inviting K-12 students to put their creative twist on Google's logo with the theme, "If I could travel in time, I'd visit..." If the student's doodle is judged to be the best doodle in the state, then that student will receive an all-expense-paid trip to New York City to compete with state winners from all fifty states. The student who is the fifty-state winner, along with having his or her doodle featured on the Google homepage, will take home a $30,000 college scholarship and a $50,000 technology grant for their school.
