SUBJECT: Teacher Scholarships for Culinary Conference

TEACHER SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR CULINARY CONFERENCE

The Wyoming Department of Education is currently accepting applications for 2017 Jackson Hole Culinary Conference teacher scholarships. The conference will be held in Jackson Hole, WY, November 9-11, 2017. Attendees will participate in a variety of culinary experiences, and obtain resources and information that can be incorporated into any learning environment.

Wyoming secondary (grades 7-12) and post-secondary educators who teach in the Career & Technical Education field and have a special interest in culinary arts will be considered. Preference will be given to educators who are hoping to implement active and inclusive learning in Family and Consumer Sciences curriculum, and are willing to share their take-aways from the conference with others. Twenty-five scholarships of $250.00 each will be awarded. The deadline to submit applications is Friday, September 1, 2017. Applicants will be notified regarding their application by September 15, 2017.
