INSPIRATION
LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITY

April 3, 2014

Good morning!

Please share with your students who are at risk that our scholarship deadline is May 1, 2014!

Do you have students who want to go to a Wyoming college or trade school but can't because they aren't eligible for Hathaway funds? The Craig and Susan Thomas Foundation is here to help! We offer a MENTORING/scholarship program for Wyoming students who have ability, but need extra help if they are going to be able to attend college or trade schools.

We don't just give money to students and then say, "Good luck!" I have had 36 years of classroom experience with learners who are at risk, so I know that doesn't work.

But, I do know what works and that is to help each student by personally mentoring and guiding them through the hoops of both college and life. These people lack role-models, support and the feeling of self-worth. I become their best advocate ---we talk, text, email, and work through options together. I travel all over the State to personally meet with each student.

You know these young people. They are in your classes and in your school. We need your assistance to find them so we can help. We offer at least 14 scholarships each semester in the amount of $1300. each.

You'll find complete information, answers to FAQs and scholarship applications on our website: www.Thomas-Foundation.com. They must be postmarked by May 1, 2014. Please tell your learners who are at risk about this wonderful opportunity!

Best regards,
