FOR YOUR INFORMATION AND DISSEMINATION

Pizza Hut's BOOK IT! program has returned for its 27th year and is available online with a registration deadline of Oct. 1.

The program offers free personal pan pizzas for students who attain reading goals set by their teachers. Each month the student reaches their goal, they receive a certificate, which the teacher must register through the website. The certificate is redeemable at Pizza Hut for a personal pan pizza.

The program website is available at: <http://www.bookitprogram.com/teachers/>. It contains recommendations for books, ideas for goal-setting as well as reading logs. Teacher worksheets and reading tracking sheets are also printable from the website at:

There is also a principal challenge coming up for National Young Readers Week November 12-16. The challenge is for a principal to pick one day that week and read for the entire school day. If principals pre-register for the event, they are entered in a contest to win 100 copies of The Diary of a Wimpy Kid: The Third Wheel for their school library.
