PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY

The Wyoming Department of Education is providing five regional two-day professional development opportunities for teachers on assessment literacy and formative assessment resource development. The training will be presented by Jan Hoegh, Associate Vice President of Marzano Research.

Participants will gain an awareness of research regarding classroom assessment and understand the differences among obtrusive, unobtrusive, and student-generated assessments.

Attendees will also learn essential practices for classroom assessment, learn about data analysis practices related to classroom assessment, and learn about developing high-quality performance assessments. Training will explore Webb's Depth of Knowledge and how to apply cognitive demand principles to assessment development. PTSB credit will be available.

There's no cost to attend the workshop and lunch will be provided. Participation is limited to the first 100 registrants for each two-day session. To register, go to: <http://goo.gl/YDekVC>. Dates and locations are listed below. All sessions take place from 8:00 am until 4:00 pm.
