MEMORANDUM NO. 2015-081

TO: School District Superintendents
FROM: Brent Bacon, Chief Academic Officer
DATE: July 27, 2015
SUBJECT: High School Computer Science Workshop

UW ADVANCED RESEARCH COMPUTING CENTER EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY

The University of Wyoming would like to announce an opportunity for Wyoming high school students and their teachers interested in High Performance Computing.

The Advanced Research Computing Center and staff have prepared an educational outreach opportunity for promising high school students to attend a workshop hosted by the University of Wyoming. The workshop will inspire these students to become more advanced in High Performance Computing, and to learn how to solve complex problems in engineering, science, and business.

The University of Wyoming will cover room and board, as well as travel expenses up to $100. Follow the link below to learn more about this workshop and register to attend. The workshop will take place August 5-7 on the University of Wyoming campus.

Find out more about the Advanced Research Computing Center at <https://arcc.uwyo.edu>.

For questions, contact Robert Awylward, University of Wyoming, at arcc-info@uwyo.edu or (307)766-4860.
