MEMORANDUM NO. 2015-101

TO: School District Superintendents
Principals
Elementary School Teachers
Social Studies Teachers

FROM: Laurie Hernandez, Supervisor of Standards & Early Childhood
Accountability Division

DATE: September 8, 2015

SUBJECT: Wyoming's Most Significant Artifacts

VOTE ONLINE FOR WYOMING'S MOST SIGNIFICANT ARTIFACTS

In celebration of Wyoming's 125th year of statehood, students of all ages are invited to vote for the state's top ten historical artifacts. The Wyoming State Historical Society and the University of Wyoming Libraries have worked together to compile the top 25 entries. Submissions came in from museums all across the state, and include a variety of artifacts such as documents, books, fossils, clothing, artwork, and more. Each artifact showcases a unique corner of Wyoming history, and offers tremendous educational opportunity. The top ten artifacts will be announced this fall.

The artifacts can be seen and voted on at goo.gl/zCCVMr. The polls close on September 30, 2015.

For more information, contact Linda Fabian, Wyoming State Historical Society, at 307-322-3014 or linda@wyshs.org.
