MEMORANDUM NO. 2017-022

TO: District Superintendents
Building Administrators
Guidance Counselors

FROM: Brent Bacon, Chief Academic Officer

DATE: Feb 21, 2017

SUBJECT: Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Seminars

2017 HOBY WYOMING LEADERSHIP SEMINARS

The Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Foundation program (HOBY) Wyoming will sponsor Wyoming Leadership Seminars where students will participate in programs designed to enhance their leadership and teamwork skills. The HOBY Wyoming Leadership Seminars will be held at Laramie County Community College (LCCC), Cheyenne, Wyoming, June 8-11, 2017. To learn more about HOBY, its history and its contributions, please visit hoby.org. HOBY Wyoming invites all schools to select up to two students to attend this summer's program.

The HOBY 2017 Sophomore Registration Kit is available at: hoby.org/hobynet/2017HOBYRegistrationKit.pdf.

The Registration Kit contains Frequently Asked Questions and can be done online with a completed Registration Worksheet, as well as a school ID and password. Registration costs $195.00 per student.

HOBY Ambassadors receive lodging for the entire weekend, three meals a day, and educational training materials and supplies. Volunteers from communities across the state raise funds to supplement the cost of these Seminars to keep registration costs as low as possible.

Since 1958, the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Foundation program (HOBY) has benefitted youth worldwide. HOBY is dedicated to "training and nurturing the youth leaders of tomorrow." Its mission is to develop leaders by empowering youth to achieve their highest potential.
