

STATEWIDE LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (LMS)

Pricing K-12

The Wyoming Department of Education has signed a contract that allows for districts to partake in substantially lower pricing for the statewide Learning Management System. All prices are locked in through June 2023. Districts will not have to sign a Terms & Conditions under the state contract.

WDE COSTS

- Implementation costs - Paid by WDE for any district who opts in before the end of 2019/2020 school year or by the end of their current LMS contract
 - + $2,500 per District
- 24x7 Tier 1 Support - Paid by the WDE*
 - + Annual Cost of $100,800
 - + Support covers anyone in the district (except for students)
 - + Districts will have their own number to reach Canvas support
- Unlimited 24x7 online Canvas Cloud Training - Paid for by WDE*
 - + $35,400 for Year 1
 - + $45,440 annually
- 35 Days of face-to-face training - Paid for by WDE
 - + $105,000
 - + These trainings will ensure educators and administrators understand how to effectively use Canvas

DISTRICT COSTS

- Annual licensing fees - Paid by the District
 - + $3.74 per student
 - + Minimum payment of $2,500 per year
 - If minimum is not met WDE will help cover the difference starting 2018/2019 school year*

In addition, the Canvas contract the WDE has negotiated pricing for ARC and Gauge. ARC is Canvas's communication tool that allows instructors and students to actively collaborate through video and audio media. Gauge is Canvas's assessment management system. Both of these tools can receive additional discounts if 60% for the student population are part of the LMS.
