SUBJECT: Future Ready Schools Administrator Training

FUTURE READY SCHOOLS ADMINISTRATOR TRAINING

The Wyoming Department of Education (WDE), in partnership with the Alliance for Excellent Education, has announced a Future Ready Schools Administrator training - Leading District Change through Future Ready Planning - from 8:30 a.m.-3 p.m. on March 27 in Cheyenne. The WDE took the statewide Future Ready Pledge in September of 2016, and is sharing the opportunity for all administrative professionals from interested districts to attend.

During this training, district leadership teams will learn about the Future Ready Schools Five Step Planning Process and develop an engagement strategy for transforming and modernizing student learning. Attendees will receive resources to support moving students toward personalized and research-based digital learning, so all students will be able to achieve their full potential and be college and career ready. Participants will dive into the Future Ready Framework and explore the Future Ready Dashboard, while participating in facilitated conversations and networking activities.

Participants should attend with their leadership team. Attendees may include district superintendents, school principals, curriculum directors, technology directors, and instructional facilitators. Registration is free, but space is limited. Registration is available here.
