The Wyoming Department of Education (WDE) is now accepting nominations for the 2018 K-12 Digital Learning Innovations Awards. This year's awards include a new category: the Innovative Classroom Award, which recognizes work around personalized learning being done by teachers and students collaboratively. Innovative Classroom Award winners, including both teachers and students, will be honored and then present at the Innovations in Learning Award Dinner on November 8, 2018. They will also be submitted to the State Education Technology Directors Association (SETDA) to be considered for the 2018 national Student Voices Award.
