SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FROM THE JACK KENT COOKE FOUNDATION

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation (JKCF) is a private philanthropic organization that gives scholarships to promising students in need. The organization offers three different scholarship opportunities for 7th grade students, seniors, and community college students:

- Young Scholars Program: Available to high-performing 7th grade students with financial needs. Young Scholars receive comprehensive educational advising and financial support from the 8th grade through high school. The application period is from January 14-March 14, 2019. Apply here.
- Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship: Available to community college students transferring to complete bachelor's degrees. The Foundation provides up to $40,000 per year for up to three years. Sign up here to be notified when the application period is open for this scholarship.
- College Scholarship Program: Available to high-achieving high school seniors. Scholars receive up to $40,000 per year, college planning support, ongoing advising, and the opportunity to network with the larger JKCF Scholar community. Sign up here to be notified when the application period is open for this scholarship.

For more application and scholarship information, contact the JKCF at www.jkcf.org or 800-941-3300.
