MEMORANDUM NO. 2019-017

TO: School District Superintendents
Curriculum Coordinators
Career and Technical Education Coordinators
Technology Coordinators
Principals
Virtual Education Coordinators

FROM: Shelley Hamel, Chief Academic Officer

DATE: February 11, 2019

SUBJECT: Celebrate Digital (Virtual) Learning Day

CELEBRATE DIGITAL (VIRTUAL) LEARNING DAY

February 28, 2019 is Digital Learning Day: A time to highlight virtual education and great teaching practices, and to showcase innovative teachers, leaders, and instructional technology programs that are improving student outcomes. Digital Learning Day is about learning and enhancing the role of the teacher in America's classroom. The Wyoming Department of Education (WDE) encourages educators to celebrate Digital Learning Day and to use virtual learning tools in their classrooms and schools. Registration and more information can be found on the Digital Learning Day website.

The WDE will host a one-hour webinar to highlight innovative districts at 3:45 p.m. on February 28, 2019. Registration for the webinar is required. The webinar will feature guest speakers from the following districts:

- Teton County #1 - Newly renovated "actively learn" classroom.
- Campbell County #1 - Open Educational Resources (OERs) project, and how other districts can become involved with OERs.
- Albany County #1 - K-5 Library and Technology pilot standards.
