FALL S5S CONFERENCE OCT 1-2, 2019: CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Wyoming Department of Education (WDE) is pleased to announce the 2019 Superintendent's Policy Summit (S5S). This year's theme is "Pursuing Excellence Together." The event is set for October 1-2, 2019 at the UW Gateway Center in Laramie, and will be preceded by a pre-conference on September 30 regarding student safety and security in schools.

S5S is an annual conference that brings together Wyoming professionals in education to share knowledge and expertise on education policy, state accreditation, and school improvement.

The WDE has extended an open call for proposals to present at S5S. Topics for consideration are listed below, and each session will be limited to 50 minutes:

Pre-conference (September 30):

- Student safety and security in schools

S5S conference (October 1-2):

- Education Law and Policy
- School Improvement and Support
- State Accreditation Criterion and Best Practices

Interested presenters must complete this proposal form by April 17, 2019. Proposals will be reviewed by a WDE selection committee and results will be communicated no later than April 24, 2019.

Details about the fall S5S conference can be found here and will be updated as more information becomes available.
