SUBJECT: Call for Proposals: 2020 Wyoming Innovations in Learning Conference

CALL FOR PROPOSALS: 2020 WYOMING INNOVATIONS IN LEARNING CONFERENCE

The Wyoming Innovations in Learning Conference and the Roadmap to STEAM are joining forces to create one amazing conference centered around innovations for teaching and learning. This is a chance to share innovative teaching practices at the fourth annual Wyoming Innovations in Learning conference on November 5-6, 2020 in Casper. Presenters from all fields willing to share their innovative ideas and experiences, to inspire educators to bring their best teaching practices to K-20 learning, are welcome to provide a proposal.

Session proposals will be accepted through May 8, 2020. Selected presenters will be notified of their inclusion in the conference by June 1, 2020, and will receive a discounted registration rate of $30.

This conference is hosted by the Wyoming Department of Education (WDE), the Wyoming Distance Education Consortium (WyDEC), the University of Wyoming, the Wyoming community colleges, the Wyoming State Library, school libraries, and the Wyoming Arts Council.

Proposal application form available here.
