CODE.ORG TEACHER TRAININGS JUNE 22-26, 2020

The University of Wyoming (UW) is offering two, five-day Code.org curriculum professional development (PD) events that will both be held virtually on June 22-26. Registration for the following Code.org trainings are now open:

- CS Discoveries - basic/intermediate for middle or high school teachers.
- CS Principles - intermediate/advanced for high school teachers with an Advanced Placement credit option.

Teachers can look forward to a week-long free computer science PD that includes materials and activities. These trainings are for teachers who will be teaching Computer Science integrated into other disciplines or as a stand-alone class.
