SUBJECT: Wyoming WebEd Radio

WYOMING WEBED RADIO TO LAUNCH ON JULY 7

Wyoming WebEd Radio is a weekly live professional development webcast designed to assist teachers with efforts in personalized learning. The inaugural season will contain eight episodes, centered on the theme "Creating a Connected and Engaging Classroom." This series will explore: creating virtual classrooms, Open Education Resources, Social Emotional Learning, Equity in Access, and more.

WebEd Radio is designed for the on-the-go education professional with 15-minute sessions, including a live interactive Question & Answer opportunity. Each session will be hosted on the Zoom online platform and live-streamed to Youtube. Sessions will begin at 1 p.m. MDT every Tuesday, starting on July 7. The first episode will feature the Buffalo Bill Center of the West. Full episode lists and additional information is available on the WDE professional development webpage.
