FROM: Kari Eakins, Chief Policy Officer

DATE: August 24, 2020

SUBJECT: Innovations Showcase

2020 VIRTUAL INNOVATIONS SHOWCASE

The Wyoming Innovations Showcase will be presented virtually on November 5, 2020 in partnership with the Wyoming Department of Education (WDE), Wyoming community colleges, University of Wyoming, State Library, and Wyoming Arts Council. As part of the Wyoming Innovations in Learning Conference, the WDE invites all attendees to participate in the Innovations Showcase from 3-4 p.m. on November 5. The Showcase is an opportunity for districts, educators, and students to share education innovations they have implemented with colleagues from across the state.

The Showcase presentations will consist of 15 minutes for virtual presentation and 15 minutes for questions and answers. There are 10 Showcase spots available, with five offered at a time. All Showcase sessions will be recorded.

Districts, educators, or students interested in being highlighted should complete this application by September 30, 2020.
