SUBJECT: DRIVE: Developing Rewarding Integrated Vocational Experiences: A Paraprofessional Training Group

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN FOR DRIVE TRAINING OCTOBER 12, 2020

The Wyoming Department of Education will host a Career and Technical Education Paraprofessional training session virtually via Zoom from 8 a.m. – 3 p.m. on October 12, 2020. This training is funded by Perkins V, is conducted by Zenith Business Services, and includes a working lunch.

Registration is available here. The training will provide the training and tools needed by paraprofessionals and job coaches to develop work readiness skills, job development work with local employers, and job coaching with students as they begin to work in new positions in your community.

The training is open to paraprofessionals who work with students in grades 8–12 and local employers. This training is free.

PTSB CEU .5 credit is available.
