SUBJECT: 2022 Wyoming Computer Science Education Conference

2022 WYOMING COMPUTER SCIENCE EDUCATION CONFERENCE

The Computer Science Teachers Association of Wyoming (CSTA WY) and the Wyoming Department of Education are partnering to host the first Wyoming Computer Science Education Conference. This conference will be held in person, and will provide engaging sessions from educators in the field. The presenters will offer information on best teaching practices and lessons learned in Computer Science education.

The inaugural conference is set for July 21-22, 2022 at Central Wyoming College in Riverton. Registration is open and continues through July 20. There will also be two pre-conference sessions on July 20.

Additional Computer Science training opportunities are available this summer; more information can be found here.
