PROFESSIONAL LEARNING COMMUNITIES (PLC) AT WORK® INITIATIVE: COHORT #5 APPLICATION OPEN

The Wyoming Department of Education (WDE), in partnership with Solution Tree, will continue the Professional Learning Communities (PLC) at Work® Initiative. Leadership teams will be trained on the PLC process in order to support schools in the implementation with fidelity. This initiative, which may cover a period of up to two years, requires selected schools to participate in the following:

- On-site needs assessment.
- PLC leadership coaching academies.
- Web-based conferencing and support.

The application period for Cohort #5 is now open. This cohort will include the selection of up to 20 schools. Schools that wish to be considered should complete and submit this WDE PLC at Work® Project- Cohort 5 Application by April 7, 2023. Selected schools will be notified on, or before, May 1, 2023. Schools not selected to participate in the WDE-funded cohort can self-sponsor in order to join the cohort.
