SUPERINTENDENT BALOW ON THE PASSING OF REP. JOHN PATTON

Sheridan legislator Rep. John Patton passed away Sunday, April 5th.

He was a tireless advocate for children and sat on several committees, including the House Education Committee, which he chaired this year.

“I was privileged to have some time as Superintendent to listen and learn from Chairman Patton,” said Superintendent Jillian Balow. “He led impactful change in Wyoming education and brought great perspective to the Legislature. I, and the state of Wyoming, have lost a great mentor. I will miss him as a friend and colleague.”

Along with the entire Wyoming Department of Education, Superintendent Balow sends her condolences to the Patton family and the Sheridan community.
