PARENT CONSENT FOR INITIAL SERVICES

Before the school district/public agency can provide special education to your child, your written consent is needed. Your consent is voluntary and can be revoked after initial provision of special education.

Check one box below to indicate your preference:

- I CONSENT to the initial provision of special education and related services.
- I DO NOT CONSENT to the initial provision of special education and related services.

I understand that if I refuse to give my consent for my child to receive special education services the school district or public agency is not permitted to implement an initial IEP, and is not required to convene an IEP team meeting. I further understand that the school district or public agency will not be in violation of the requirement, under the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and the Wyoming Department of Education Chapter 7 Rules Governing Services for Children with Disabilities to make available a free appropriate public education (FAPE) for my child.
