

Let George Washington revolutionize your classroom.

Rejuvenate your practice with unparalleled access to 18th-century content, experts, sources, and the historic Mount Vernon estate.

RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS AT MOUNT VERNON

We've taken the best elements of our popular residential program and made them accessible to educators in every state. Our five-day intensive format allows you to focus on content areas most relevant to you and your students.

Throughout the program you will:

- Learn about George Washington's life and legacy while staying on-site steps from his beloved home.
- Apply content, context, and teaching methods from scholars and experts in the field in your own classroom.
- Receive unparalleled access to diverse and attainable primary sources from the Washington Library and Mount Vernon estate including books, documents, and objects.
- Walk in the footsteps of George Washington and get a glimpse into 18th century life through VIP tours of the historic estate.

APPLY

All educators (K-12) are eligible to attend. Full scholarships that include a transportation stipend are available. Limited spots are reserved for program alumni.

Past Themes:

The Great Experiment: George Washington and the Founding of the U.S. Government

Leadership and Legacy: Lessons from George Washington

George Washington at War: From Soldier to Commander and Chief

Martha Washington and the Women of the 18th Century

Slavery in George Washington's World

First in Business: Washington, Mount Vernon, and the New Nation

mountvernon.org/residentialprograms

GEORGE WASHINGTON
TEACHER INSTITUTE

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S
MOUNT ★ VERNON