

WDE Standards Review Process Snapshot

*Diverse Representation – WDE takes measures to ensure the Standards Review Committee (SRC) has diverse representation - by geographic region, role within a school, content expertise, grade levels, years of experience, scale of school, and educators of special populations. The composition of the committee includes educators, administrators, parents, higher education representatives, business & industry representatives, Wyoming citizens, and occasionally students.